VA offers a range of housing services for Veterans
to help you regain your independence.

VA Provides

Prevention services

that keep Veterans from becoming homeless.

Outreach services

that are the front doors to both VA homeless programs and the broader VA health care system.

Residential services that provide temporary placement, in the form of emergency or transitional housing, for Veterans who need a place to stay right now.

Permanent housing services that connect Veterans to affordable housing in their communities. These services come with either short or long-term rental subsidies, case management, and varying levels of wrap-around supportive services to ensure that Veterans have all the necessary resources to stay housed.
