

Protecting the Promise to Address Comprehensive Toxics (PACT) Act Benefits from Identity Theft Scammers

Wednesday, February 1, 2023
1:00 – 2:00 p.m. EST

Moderator: Dr. Amy L. Rose, Program Analyst,
VA Privacy Service

Panelists:

- » Carol Kando-Pineda, Counsel, Division of Consumer and Business Education, Federal Trade Commission
- » Monica Rivera, Chief Stakeholder and Organizational Change Management, Benefits Delivery Protection and Remediation, Office of Financial Management, Veterans Benefits Administration

This educational event is an opportunity for VA staff and contractors, federal employees, and the wider Veteran community to learn how to protect their privacy when engaging in online activities, including social media, browsing, shopping, and personal finance. Expert speakers will identify the data elements you should never disclose, signs of risky websites and offers, spotting suspicious account activity, reporting and recovering from identity theft, and protecting VA benefits such as those provided by the PACT Act.

Register Here

All non-VA attendees, click the link above and “Continue as Guest” to register and save the event to your calendar. VA employees and contractors with an active PIV badge can access VA IT Campus by selecting the “Continue with PIV card” option.

VA employees and contractors will automatically receive one Talent Management System (TMS) credit. One International Association of Privacy Professional (IAPP) Continuing Privacy Education (CPE) credit is available for all attendees.

Contact VA Privacy Service
VAPrivacyCommunications@va.gov
VA Privacy Website

PRIVACY
MATTERS

VA

U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs
Office of Information and Technology

